CARTEL SUB-MARINO.

ROMA, 15.—The Emperor put to sea at eleven yesterday.

The parade of the fleet was a brilliant spectacle. The manœuvres were executed with admirable precision, and were watched by thousands of private steamers which accompanied the fleet to sea.

PARIS, 15th.—After the duel Madrid, Carnot, all Members of the Ministry, M. Ferry and others who were present congratulated M. Flouquet and before him nearly all the Republican Members of the Chamber left their cards at the office of the Minister of the Interior.

There is no doubt that Boulanger's condition is serious. M. Flouquet's sword pointed to a depth of two inches, severing the left nerve, and impairing the play of the lungs perhaps, irreversibly.

Rochefort, hearing the result of the duel, exclaimed: "it is wonderful for the youngest General in the army to let himself be poked by a barrister nearly sixty."

Doctor Laffé believes matters will progress favorably and that Boulanger will recover quickly. He adds, however, there is danger of a complication.

The doctors consider it a miracle that Boulanger escaped a directly mortal wound.

General sufferers much pain.

LONDON, 15th.—The Paris Correspondent of the Times says the common belief is that Boulanger and his followers owing to the severity of their punishment dream of civil war and that they intend to make an effort to realize their criminal hopes by provoking street demonstrations.

BERLIN, 15th.—The Emperor will remain four days at St. Petersburg and will return by sea to Kiel.

The Emperor will visit Alsace-Lorraine in September, meeting the King of the Belgians at Luxembourg. He will visit Vienna in September and will probably visit the King of Italy in October.

Communications from the Emperor to his mother have been transmitted from Spandau and Kiel. This fact has a significance in the face of the persistent foreign sounds regarding the alleged unhappy relations existing between the Emperor and the Empress.

ROMA, 16th.—The Roman, commenting on the appointment by the United States House of Representatives of a Committee to inquire into the influx of Italians into America, says the Italian Government has done its best to dissuade any other country than itself from doing so.
